

How do taxes work?

We'll provide qualifying drivers with a 1099-K, 1099-NEC, and/or 1099-MISC. You should be able to download your tax documents on your Driver Dashboard and your Driver app by January 31, 2023.

If you opted to receive a physical copy of your tax documents, you should receive them in the mail after February 1, 2023.

If you do not qualify to receive a 1099 this year, you'll still receive a Tax Summary on your Driver Dashboard and your Driver app. The Tax Summary provides a detailed breakdown of your annual earnings and business-related expenses that may be deductible to help you keep more of what you've earned over the year. Potential deductible business-related expenses may vary depending on how your business is set up.

Uber does not provide tax advice. It's recommended you seek guidance from a qualified tax service like TurboTax and/or contact an independent tax professional for specific answers to tax questions. You can also visit the IRS website to see the deadline for individuals and businesses to file taxes.
